NEW WEDNESDAY NIGHT STUDY: BIBLICAL CITIZENSHIP IN MODERN AMERICA

Our new Wednesday Night study continues this week. This 8 week course will help us better understand Biblical principles and how to apply them to the world around us. Gain practical knowledge on how to help restore Biblical values at the local, state, and national levels.

THIS IS A STUDY YOU WON'T WANT TO MISS!

Happy BIRTHDAY

ALABASTER - PART 4

The first Alabaster offering was inspired by the story of a woman who took an alabaster jar full of perfume to anoint Jesus's feet and was promoted by the slogan "Give Up a Want to Meet a Need." How might this slogan connect to this story?

- Sacrificial Giving - this speaks for itself.
- Prioritizing Spiritual Matters - the woman prioritized Jesus over perfume. We should also give priority to helping spread the gospel.
- Rejection of Materialism - when we reject the need to always "have more", then there are more resources available for kingdom purposes.
- Symbol of Generosity - the woman's act was extravagant, we should be generous too!

Alabaster Offering: NEXT Sunday, Sept. 29th
